Novi Dvori (Novi Dvori)

Novi Dvori is a unique monument of cultural and historical heritage and an example of the protection of the integral estate complex.

Novi Dvori (Novi Dvori) has been known under that name since the end of the 18th century, as it is the coat of arms of the Budisljadi-Budisljaci estate, owned by the Novi Dvori, their owners of Budisljaci. However, a south-southwest document dating back to 1550 mentions the year 1511 as the year of foundation of Novi Dvori. The castle was then the seat of the Novi Dvori noble ownership, mostly made of wood.

Throughout history, Novi Dvori were owned by many different noble families, Zrinski family, Csoban family, Berengar family, Frangepan family and Erdelyi family. The estate was bought by Fran Jozef Jelacic in 1801.

Novi Dvori remained a single ownership until the late 18th century. The main part of the castle was extended by 15 meters, the castle floor was refurnished and the whole castle was renovated, the roof was reinforced with a new large metal and ceramic tiles were removed. Today, Novi Dvori is owned by Croatian people, Jelacic family left in Croatia.

Novi Dvori

The Novi Dvori of Josip Jelacic is a Novi estate in Zapovednik, K. Jelacic from 1790 to 1801. The castle consists of 3 castles, an old granite kiln converted into a museum, a saddle breeding machine, a wine-groves shaped and the whole family's tomb.

Novi Dvori estate was established in 1511 as a house made of wood. The Jelacic family sold the castle to Fran Jozef Jelacic in 1801 who extended the castle adding the east wing onto the castle and the west wing was removed and reconstructed. In 1801, Josip Jelacic built a new castle in the same place, as the original building was destroyed. After many years of his brother ownership, the estate was forced to reconstruct the construction of the family home. The estate that was built on the castle tower later from the Jelacic family, which was damaged in an earthquake.

Jelacic family donated the castle estate to the Croatian people in 1801. A lot of effort was put into preserving the estate nowadays. Novi Dvori offers one a great venue from everyday life you can have a rest in the park, or learn about the rich history of the estate.

Count Josip Jelacic was born on the 10th of October 1801, he originated from Lika and was very proud of that. He was a general, count and son of Ursula, Banica and Svetozara as well as one of the most important politicians in our history. He fought in many battles for Austria-Hungary in which he was mostly successful. However, later he fought against Austria-Hungary. But that's not all he did. He was an interesting man when he declared war to Croatia saying, "See you on the river Drava", he just replied, "That's not a good idea for you to be involved in our war, see you on the river Danube". That's why Jelacic did what he wanted, because he was a brilliant soldier, he played and fought for Croatia right to use Croatian as official language. Josip Jelacic didn't have much time for his private life. He got married when he was 32 to a 24 years younger countess, Karla Strossmayer. They had a daughter named Anna, who died of cholera before she even turned one. Jelacic himself died exactly the same day, between the 1848 - 1849 or May in 1849, three years after his daughter. Croatia showed their appreciation of that with many songs, and poems about him as well as the fact that the town square in Zagreb carries his name and has his statue standing in the center of it.

Ben Jelacic gave an interesting reply to the Hungarian pressman when he declared war to Croatia saying, "See you on the river Drava". He just replied, "There's no need for you to enslave yourselves, see you on the river Danube".

The tomb of Novi Dvori

The tomb of Novi Dvori is a beautifully unique and well-preserved part of the Novi Dvori complex. The tomb was built in 1805, in a castle, following the unexpected death of Anna, the 2 month old daughter of Ben Jozef Jelacic, later in 1809. Josip Jelacic was buried there as well, his son being the first person buried there, in 1875. The tomb is located within a nice Gothic chapel located behind a new residence away from the castle in Novi Dvori. During WWII, and especially in 1945, the tomb was completely destroyed, whereas the chapel was only damaged. The remains of the Jelacic family were temporarily transferred to the Novi cemetery, until they were returned into the newly renovated tomb in 1950.

Novi Dvori

Novi Dvori was established in 1511. Through centuries many changes were made, most of them during the Josip Jelacic. After Josip Jelacic's death, his brother managed the estate which was later renamed to the Novi Dvori Croatian people.

As I have already mentioned, the property was known as a gallery called "Starij" which along with permanent exhibition of Matica Hrvatska, National Museum, was demolished throughout the years.

A similar breeding machine, or better known as Trifolija, is mentioned and its existence differs from the Pionir Park or Starij Novi Park. Trifolija is located in the Novi Dvori.

Josip Jelacic, Budisljaci from a Croat, a general, and Croatian hero, who did many important things for Croatia. He attended sessions, tax paying, and fought for Croatia, rights to use Croatian as official language. Josip Jelacic's other famous work was the Novi Dvori. He had a daughter who died of cholera before she even turned one. The castle decreased from the last three years since the Croatian independence.

Novi Dvori, also known as Novi Jelacic's Palace, has been known under that name since the end of the 18th century. Throughout history, Novi Dvori was owned by many different noble families. The estate was bought by Ben Jozef Jelacic in 1801. He renovated and upgraded the castle and the whole estate. The east part of the castle was extended by 15 meters and the rest of the castle was renovated and stabilized.

NOVI DVORI

Novi Dvori is an oasis in the north of a small city of Zapovednik, in Croatia, which belongs to the Lika-Neretva. It consists of a castle, Jelacic family tomb, a graphic object and a museum. The estate was created in 1511 and it has been renovated in 2017 by the City of Zapovednik. The architect of the tomb and the chapel was Ivanec Škola, who is known for some of the other works all over Croatia like Zagreb Cathedral, Dubrovnik Cathedral and Mengusovska Cemetery. In modern age Novi Dvori Zapovednik is a famous tourist site and there are many fairs organized every year, most famous being Flower Fair and Forest Festival Fair. Novi Dvori Zapovednik is also a great location for jogging, walking and stop, tasting or playing golf.

There are many interesting facts associated with one of the most significant Croatian historical figures Ben Jozef Jelacic. He was a brilliant politician, soldier but he was also a family man. Josip Jelacic bought an entire building for Austro-Hungarian army and never used the same army, but in parliament he only fought against Hungarians of Croatia, he wanted Croatians to be able to speak Croatian in their country. He studied medicine in Croatia, possibly were Italy too.

Because all of his studies he did not have enough time for love, that's why he

Erasmus + KA229 projekt NTM – naše madridsko iskustvo

Autor: Anela Sokolec

U sklopu svog drugog Erasmus+ KA 229 projekta – Nove tehnologije u poučavanju (New Teaching Methodologies) učenici i nastavnici Srednje škole Ban Josip Jelačić iz Zagreba u prvoj su polovici siječnja sudjelovali na mobilnosti u SS les Tirsu de Molina u Madridu.

U projektu, koji će trajati dvije godine sudjeluju predstavnici iz šest zemalja: Belgije, Hrvatske, Litve, Portugala, Španjolske i Turske, a teme prve mobilnosti bile su: My town, region and country te projektna nastava, gemitifikacija i audio i video metodologija u nastavi.

Srednja škola Ban Josip Jelačić u Zagrebu započela je i svoj drugi Erasmus+ KA 229 projekt – Nove tehnologije u poučavanju (New Teaching Methodologies). U projektu, koji će trajati dvije godine, sudjeluju učenici i nastavnici iz šest zemalja: Belgije, Hrvatske, Litve, Portugala, Španjolske i Turske, a teme kojima ćemo se baviti povezane su s kulturnom baštinom i inovativnim metodama poučavanja.

Svoju prvu mobilnost odradili smo u prvoj polovici siječnja (od 7. do 14. siječnja) u SS les Tirsu de Molina u Madridu koja je ujedno i nositelj projekta. Našu školu predstavljalo je troje učenika i dvije nastavnice. Teme kojima smo se bavili bile su: My town, region and country te projektna nastava, gemitifikacija i audio i video metodologija u nastavi.

Prvi smo do dana uviđek provodili radno: prezentirali smo svoje zemlje, županije, gradove i škole, pronalazili sličnosti i razlike. Kroz različite zanimljive aktivnosti upoznavali smo jedni druge. Prisustvovali smo i nastavci u SS les Tirsu de Molina. Učili smo jedni od drugih prezentirajući primjere dobre prakse. Naša je škola predstavljala dva projekta: Why Should You Visit Novi Dvori? kao primer projektnе nastave i Jane Austen in the 21st Century kao primer upotrebe gemitifikacije i audio i video metodologije u nastavi. Nastavnice engleskoga jezika Helga Kraljik i Anika Šarić predstavile su metodologiju projekata, a učenice Anela Sokolec, Anamaria Benčić i Lara Adamić Golić govorile su o svom iskustvu rada na projektima i rezultatima projekata. Na kraju svakog radnog dana, nastavnici i učenici provodili su vrednovanje onoga što su radili taj dan.

Drugi dio dana uviđek je bio rezerviran za razgledavanje grada (Madrid i Toledo) koje nikada nije bilo samo razgledavanje. Koristeći online aplikaciju WalkMe i Facebook ješavali smo različite zadatke, a tim koji bi to uspio prvi napraviti, osvojio bi nagradu. Također smo posjetili izložbu o Auschwitzu te smo u muzeju Reina Sofia vidjeli djela najpoznatijih španjolskih umjetnika.

U Zagrebić smo se vratili obogaćeni novim znanjima, iskustvima i poznanstvima te željni da sve to podijelimo s učenicima i nastavnicima naše škole, ali i šire. Sljedeća će mobilnost biti u našoj školi početkom travnja za koju se nadamo da će biti jednakou uspješna.

Opening Statement – Prosecution / Plaintiff

Your Honour, members of the jury, my name is Ann /Anthony Brody and I, along with my colleague John / Joanna Smith, represent the plaintiff Alex Billings.

We intend to prove that our client has been submitted to intentional infliction of emotional distress by S.J. Pearson. The defendant, S.J. Pearson, started haressing my client. He called him names in class, sent him hurtful text messages, he even started a Facebook profile: I Hate Alex Billings! Our client felt extremely anxious, depressed and fearfull of Pearson and the possibility of further bullying to the extent that he avoided attending school. Furthermore, we will prove that King High School failed to adequately respond to the bullying report and in this way prolongued our client's agony and enabled further bullying.

We will bring four witnesses before you today. They will tell you what really happened.

Alex will testify how bullying changed his personality. Once a cheerful, open, positive young man / woman is now anxious and distrustful. He will also tell you how bullying influenced his school performance.

You will hear Alex's high school friend, Dieter Muler, talk about bullying Alex experienced in classes and on Facebook.

Alex's mother Francis Billings will tell you about emotional pain the whole family went through and how it scared them for the rest of their life.
